New Class Gets Certificates
Surgical Dressings Report
For Quarter.

The first class for Red Cross instructors held their graduating exercises in the Red Cross Room at the Normal, May 10, 1918. Mrs. Osburn addressed the class, speaking of the obligation each member owed to the work and urging more effort as the need is so great. Each one signed the oath of allegiance to the constitution of the United States after which Mrs. Osburn presented the diplomas.

The course consisted of twelve lessons in the making of surgical dressings, the making of a number of dressings to be sent to headquarters together with a criticism from each member of the class, an examination and fifteen hours of supervised teaching.

Those receiving diplomas were: Misses Brunner, Anthony, Winn, Miller, and Helwig (faculty members), Myrne Converse, Beatrice Sewell, Ruth Foster, Tessie Degan, Ella Moore, Georgia Evans and Anne Sillers of the senior and junior classes.

Mr. Palfreyman, Verne Pickens, and Lisle Hanna received certificates permitting them to instruct volunteer workers. The diplomas are not issued to men.

The second class of Red Cross instructors will finish the course this week. The class is made up of fifty students and two faculty members. This class will receive certificates for instructors of volunteer workers, not diplomas. In order to receive the diploma, they must do fifteen hours of successful teaching under supervision.

Deliver Address.

Commencement week for the graduates of 1918 will begin Sunday, June 2, at 2:30 o'clock. The baccalaureate service will be given at this time by Rev. Coile, of the Presbyterian church.

Monday afternoon, June 3, at 2:30 o'clock the class day exercises will be held. This year it will be in the form of a reception to the faculty and students. The guests will be received by Beulah Beggs, the president of the graduating classes. The class cane will be presented to the Junior class by Verne Pickens, President of the Senior class. The response will be made by Ella Moore, president of the Junior class. Music for the afternoon will be furnished by the orchestra. Vocal solos will be given by Orpha Farris and Murice White. Kathryn Carpenter will give a violin solo and Mahala Saville, a reading. At the close of the entertainment refreshments will be served.

Green Stockings, the class play, will be shown in the Normal Auditorium, Monday evening, June 3, at 8:15 o'clock. This is a lively comedy of modern English social life. Margaret Anglin has starred in it and still retains its copyright. The play will be produced here under the direction of Prof. Harry A. Miller, a fact which, of itself, insures a successful performance.

The cast of characters is as follows:

Admiral Grice, a testy old gentleman of 65 with the manner of an old sea dog, of ruddy complexion, with white hair and whiskers—Clifford Hix.

William Faraday, a well preserved man of about 65, fashionable, superficial and thoroly selfish—Lloyd Hartley.

Colonel Smith, a dignified, dryly humorous man of military bearing, about 40 years old—Jay Goodman.

The purpose of the meet was to arouse interest and to develop material for the Missouri Valley Meet at Columbia, May 25.

Since the announcement that there would be no Intercollegiate Meet at Springfield this year, training for track has practically stopped. It is considered a compliment to the school that she was invited to send entries to this meet at Columbia. Helen Hudson; 2nd, Osa Coler, Velma Appleby, Gertrude Walker and Mabel Dunshee.

The Demonstration school held a meet at the same time. The boys were divided into three classes according to their weight. Cleo Pugh in Class A was the star of the meet winning first place in seven events, this being the total number of events offered. The winner in the girls' meet was Gladys Dragoo.

The losers in the dual track meet May 11, entertained the winners with a line party at the Empire and a visit to Reuillard's afterwards. Thirteen boys were present.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.

Excelsior Notes.

The Excelsiors will confess that at one time they were backward—quite backward. That was on May 9 when a Backward Program was given which attracted much notice. This attention was due in part to the clever poster made by Ora Bishop and displayed in the bulletin board. It read, Program Backward: Society ..... Quotations Backward
Mulnix Valerie ..... Lecture.
Bishop Ora ..... Recitation

Society Excelsior.

1918, 9 May.

216 Room.

The members showed how heartily they entered into the spirit of the occasion by turning their backs toward the president when the meeting was called to order.

On May 16, a musical program was given as follows:

Reading On Music.....Minnie Liggett
Violin Duet.....Gail Bishop,
.....Valerie Mulnix
Song .....Beulah Gillespie
Piano Trio .....Eva Bohannon,
Ethel Pruitt, Minnie Turner.

At this meeting the following officers were chosen for the summer quarter:

President .....Mrs. Ethel Pruitt
Vice-President.....Audrey Benson
Secretary .....Louise Youngman
Treasurer .....Valerie Mulnix
Critic .....Minnie Turner
Sergeant at Arms, Beulah Gillespie.

Two magazines were bought by the Excelsiors at the Red Cross auction at assembly on May 14 for two dollars each.

The Excelsiors feel, more than ever before, the right to their name, since showing to the school their ability to win in the annual inter-society contests over the worthy societies who opposed them, and they are striving to make greater, at all times and in all things, the name EXCELSIOR!

Philo Notes.

Philomatheans have a keen interest in the great work which the Red Cross has been doing. The society purchased three magazines costing twelve dollars, at the Red Cross Auction held in assembly last week.

The following program was given on May 16:

Solo: She Wears a Cross—Nelle Cranor.

Readings: The Red Cross Spirit. They Are Dying for the Flag—Ella Moore.

Red Cross Work of the Past and Plans for the Future—Marie Landfather.

At the regular meeting on May 9, Mrs. G. H. Colbert gave an interesting sketch of camp life as she saw it at Camp Bowie, Fort Worth, Tex. She spoke especially of the work of the Y. M. and Y. W. societies in camp.

Early Tuesday morning, May 14, the loud alarm bells began to sound and soon every Philo was on his way to the Normal park for his breakfast. But when the eight o'clock class bell rang he was still eating sandwiches and wieners, wondering how he could get into class late without troubling his teachers. The problem was soon solved and each went to class taking to the instructor in charge the remnants of a sandwich or a banana.

Miss Beatrix Winn was a guest of the society.

The officers of the society for the summer quarter are as follows:

J. M. White .....President
Stella Rogers .....Vice-President
Ella Moore .....Secretary
Tessie Degan .....Treasurer
Hazel Reaugh ....Sergeant-at-arms

EUELL RAMSEY INJURED.

Euell Ramsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Ramsey, living North of Maryville, was seriously injured in an automobile accident on Sunday evening, May 12. Euell and his brother Harold were on their way to Maryville and when about four miles north of Union Schoolhouse on the Pickering road, Harold, who was driving the car, lost control and the machine went headlong into a ditch, turning over, and throwing the boys underneath.

Euell is now at the St. Francis Hospital in a very critical condition. Harold suffered only minor injuries.

Euell Ramsey has been attending school at the Normal. Harold, a former student at the Normal, will receive his B. S. degree from the University of Missouri in the spring, though he left school before the end of the term to report for duty at Camp Pike, Arkansas, on May 15.

A RED CROSS BANANA.

One banana was auctioned off for the red cross fund, Tuesday, May 14 in the corridor on the second floor. Miss Beatrix Winn was the auctioneer. Nina Bent was the highest bidder, paying fifty cents for the one banana.

MISS ANTHONY RETURNS TO THE NORMAL.

Miss Hettie M. Anthony, head of the home economic department will resume her work at the Normal at the beginning of the summer term.

Miss Anthony has been in government work as state organizer for food production and conservation since the middle of March.

Miss Pauline Miller and Charles Massie were married May 8, and will live on a farm near Hopkins. Miss Miller is a former Normal student.

LETTER FROM MR. HANSON.

From a letter recently received by President Richardson from Mr. Hanson of Camp Gordon, the following extracts will be of interest to Normal students:

I have a baseball team composed exclusively of Indians with a plentiful supply of redskin substitutes and rooters. The Indians are as fine looking a bunch of men as were ever received at a camp. They are graduates of Haskell Institute at Lawrence, Kansas and are finely educated men. They volunteered for service in the Indian regiment that was organized and offered the government in the present war. As athletes they are unsurpassed in camp and they have won the admiration of all with whom they have come into contact here by their courtesy and ability as soldiers.

Next Saturday I am planning for a track and field meet. This is the first of a series of field meets which will be held at regular intervals, and competition promises to be keen. The meet will be held by battalions, commencing at 9:00 o'clock in the morning and extending thruout the day. General Sage has given us permission to run the meet and as an added feature he has ordered the regimental bands to render selections and popular airs. The General seems very much interested and is anxious to have every man participate in some form of athletics.

Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of our President, who has delighted thousands of soldiers in the training camps thruout the country scored a big hit before the soldiers here. Miss Wilson has a charming voice and her singing of a number of southern melodies drew enthusiastic applause from the audience. Major Ralph Connor (the famous author and now chaplain of a regiment of the Canadian expeditionary forces) will talk to the men tonight.

Our government is much interested in developing singing in the army. We want to send a singing army to France. I wish you could hear the soldiers as they go along the roads singing, all in tune, you would realize what singing means to them. You have always urged the students to take part in singing and I now see a greater need for it. Tell Miss Zenor to keep up the good work.

I wish you could see one of our big reviews. It's a great sight to see 50,000 soldiers marching, with several regimental bands playing. Talk about spirit! I wish it were possible for every man and woman to get a touch of this patriotism and real love for our country. You can't imagine the feeling that comes to one. It thrills you thru and thru.

I have seen enough in three weeks to thoroughly convince me that there isn't a nation on the globe that can outdo the fighting spirit of the American soldiers. Woe betide the Hun that observes no law of God or man when our men surge across "No Man's Land."

SCIENCE NOTES.

The agriculture classes have shown their patriotism by again helping the farmers of Nodaway County. The seed-corn tests at the corn-testing station in the Real Estate Bank building were ready to be read and the farmers were anxiously waiting to plant their seed; so Mr. Belting took his classes to assist in this work.

Mr. William Lippman of St. Louis gave an illustrated lecture in the biology room on May 13, portraying a trip thru the Rockies. The members of the biology, agriculture, economic geography, and music classes attended this lecture which was both entertaining and instructive.

Some baby silk-worms came from the tiny white eggs in the geography room about the middle of April. Mr. Cauffield has since been busily striving to satisfy their ravenous appetites for mulberry leaves. These silk-worms are descendants of the stock which Mr. Cauffield brought here four years ago.

The biology class did some work in ornamental planting at the home of Mary Wooldridge, 418 West 3rd street on May 2.

Mr. C. C. Leeson of the biology department, has planned the ornamentation of over a dozen lawns in Maryville. Among these are the lawns at the following places: The Carnegie Library; S. G. Gillam, 210 East Seventh street; G. B. Roseberry, 229 East Seventh street; Miss Bettie Turner, 620 West First street; J. W. Herren, 410 South Main street; and Conrad Yehle, 101 East Sixth street. Mr. Leeson will continue to help those who wish to profit by his co-operation.

Miss Ula Strader visited the Normal Wednesday, May 15.

ALUMNI NOTES.

Mattie Marie Clayton, 1917, startled the members of the Queen Esther Circle, on May 4, by announcing that she could no longer be a member. When asked to explain it she replied, "No married lady can be a member of this circle; I am going to be married in just fifty-four minutes." The club was then invited to go with Miss Clayton to the home of Rev. Cox to witness her marriage to Sergeant Oren Kelley. Mrs. Kelley is finishing her school at Grant City and Mr. Kelley has gone back to Camp Funston where he is in training.

Mabel Null, 1917, was married Sunday, May 12, to Lester Ellis. They will make their home in Shenandoah, Iowa.

Donald L. Robey, 1915, has given up his work as instructor in industrial arts at Weiser, Idaho, to accept a position as feature writer for the Boise, Idaho, Statesman. His work begins about Aug. 1. Before that time he will attend the summer term of the Oregon State College at Corvallis to complete his work for his degree.

THE JUNIOR RED CROSS.

The Junior Red Cross of the Demonstration School has closed its work for the school year with the shipment of supplies on May 16. The following is a list of the articles made by the children this year: 38 pillows, 78 pillow-cases, 15 petticoats, 4 pair of bloomers, 2 pair of wristlets, 4 black sateen pinafores, 1 baby hood, 3 knitted afghans, 2 comforters and three hundred shot-bags.

Besides this, the boys have made boxes for the shipment of Red Cross supplies. The Juniors also helped to raise money for the Red Cross drive by buying several magazines at the auction. The summer work will be largely gardening.

Warren Brett, a former student of the Normal, now at Maysville, Mo., met with what might have been a serious accident on May 9. A window sash blew in, the glass striking him in the eye, cutting two ugly gashes in his forehead. It is thought had it not been for his glasses, his eye might have been put out.

AID RURAL SURVEY.

Mr. Osburn's classes have been aiding in the State Rural Survey. The Maryville Normal has been given, as its share, the survey of Arithmetic. As a result, from 2,500 to 3,000 papers have been received.

The method is to put the tests out by counties, making approximately fifty papers from each.

As yet no final results can be given, for two districts have not sent in their reports.

The survey will also aid in classifying the rural schools into the groups, a, b and c.

President Richardson and Mr. C. A. Hawkins went to Gallatin on May 11, to attend the meeting of the executive committee of the Northwest Missouri Teacher's Association. Mr. Hawkins is a member of that committee.

Mr. Richardson has received a letter from the ninety-ninth member of our honor roll, Orlo Bond. He writes that he is in the hospital corps of the Naval Reserve at Newport, R. I., but is asking for a transfer into the merchant marine. Among other things he says: "It's really a great experience and every volunteer helps advance the era of the New Democracy. It makes me feel good to think that I can really be of service."

"The college men were the first to volunteer and they have certainly shown the value of their training. It was hard to give up college but after all what good can an education do us if we are not prepared for emergencies like the present crisis?" Mr. Bond was a junior in Columbia University.

Miss Oma Trotter visited the Normal, Monday, May 13.

THE STROLLER.

Have you seen them? No, but I will. Will you be shocked? I don't think so. Do you think it will be terrible if I am seen there? No, indeed! Where can I see them? In the auditorium. When? Oh, sometime in June. Will it be worth the money? I should say! Will the boys go? You bet! Can you take a long look? Two hours if you want to! What will I see? The Graduating Class wearing "Green Stockings!"

These are the days which remind us that some of us have big feet; others wear white shoes.

Miss McMillan: Miss Collier, what stains are like cocoa stains?

Miss Collier: Chocolate!

If Miss Degan continues to teach such big classes in penmanship, we will soon have more Palmer Methodists than any other denomination.

Miss McMillan: What other individuals have been connected with Mr. Hoover in the Food Administration?

Lou Mutz: Mrs. Hoover!

Staff Member: I've heard that Miss — is looking towards matrimony.

Minnie Turner: That's nothing—we're all looking!

Two plausible explanations of the M. I. W. club are Mis-Instructed-Women and Marriage is Wrong.

Some day the Stroller is going to count the number of young ladies in the library to whom Murice White talks before he begins to study.

The Stroller looks forward with great expectations to the graduating class play. His expectations are based upon the following comments heard in the halls:—

"Are you in Green Stockings?"

"Not today—they're white."

"Green Stockings!—Won't that make swell posters?"

"Do you know, I don't know whether to save my money for a ticket to Green Stockings or not. I'm afraid."

"Did you say it was a punk cast? I'm in it!"

Miss Zenor: Have you seen the snapdragons in the biology room?

Eugene Yehle: No, how many legs have they?

ASSEMBLY NOTES.

Rev. Holliday of the South Methodist Church addressed the students in assembly, May 7. He chose his subject from the text, "I pray that thou shouldst not take them out of the world, but that thou shouldst keep them from the evil."

"What will you bid for this latest copy of the Review of Reviews?" queried the voice of the auctioneer, Dean Colbert, to the astonishment of students in assembly, May 14. Energetically waving a magazine in the air, Mr. Colbert thus opened our part of the Red Cross drive for $100,000,000.

An extra package of Review of Reviews being on hand, afforded one a chance to "spring" a surprise in assembly. Altho begun in fun, the opportunity given to raise our share in this drive was at once accepted, and bidding became lively. Students, faculty, classes, school organizations and clubs outbid one another. Junior high and the demonstration school joined in the fun.

President Richardson bought the first copy for $10. The highest bid offered for any one magazine was $15.

The bidding in of the wrapping paper and string for $2.02 closed the auction which totaled $212.02.

The girls of the Junior High School gave a brief exhibition of their gymnasium work just before the auction. This consisted of dumb bell and Indian club exercises and a folk dance.

NEW WAR BOOKS FOR LIBRARY.

The policy of the history department thruout this year has been to fuse with past history, present social and economic conditions and to bring into clear view, the diplomatic backgrounds of the present world struggle.

For this work about twenty new volumes of historical matter have been added to the school library. These books should be of interest to all of the students because of their value in showing the existing conditions and relations of the warring nations and of the world today.

Mrs. Loren Schnabel received a cablegram Saturday, May 11, stating that her husband had arrived safely in France. Mr. Schnabel is a former Normal student.

MR. BELTING TO LEAVE.

Mr. C. H. Belting, of the agriculture department, will leave June 1 for Shelbyville, Illinois, where he will take up the work of County Farm Advisor for Shelby County.

Mr. Belting spent May 2-7 in Champaign consulting with the agriculture extension department of the state university as to the farm advisory work. While in Illinois, Mr. Belting spent Sunday with his parents at Charleston.

The many friends of Mr. Belting will regret his departure from the Normal.

The foods class is doing some work in dietetics this quarter. Each member of the class is to work out a well balanced ration for one day. The daily menu is to cost not more than two dollars for a family of four. These menus are then served, in order that each one may visualize the size of a serving necessary to give the required number of calories.

Mrs. Osta B. Feurt of Martinsville, Mo., was here on May 1. Mrs. Feurt was seeking teachers for the ward schools of the Martinsville consolidated school, of which she is principal.

Don Roberts, formerly Editor of the Green and White Courier, left May 6 for Wilmington, North Carolina, where he has accepted a position in the Roberts Contracting Company with his brother, who is in charge of extensive lumber interests and has a number of contracts with various shipyards.

Crystelle and Nelle Cranor visited Saturday and Sunday, May 11, 12, at their home near Albany. They were accompanied by Tessie Degan and Pearl Wilkerson.

Misses Grace Pugh, Laveta McClanahan, Ida Belle Warden and Ruth Miller were week end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Martin, southeast of Maryville.

Dorris Sayler left Wednesday, May 15 for Des Moines, Iowa, where she has accepted a position as stenographer in the Euclid Avenue State Bank. Mr. Jerry Sayler, a brother of Dorris Sayler is also in this bank.

BUILT FOR TWO.

Have you seen the cozy little cottage that seems "built just for two?" It is now on display in the corridor of the first floor. Jesse Boatman made this cottage for about eight families, and the biology classes (who paid for it) have dedicated it to the prospective birds of the Normal campus. It will soon be raised to the top of a telephone pole on the campus, after which, it is hoped, it will soon be occupied by the eight families—of martins.

Ernest Breit visited in Maryville, Sunday, May 12.

Catherine Norris and Maud Short spent Sunday, May 12 at Miss Norris' home at Oregon.

Nina Bent spent May 3-7 in Camp Funston.

Hershel Colbert has been assigned as instructor in the fourth series of training school work at Camp Bowie, Tex.

Mr. Richardson gave the commencement address at the Barnard High School, Friday night, May 7.

Whoever the M. I. W's are, they are a mysterious bunch; they travel only after dark. They enjoyed a slumber party at the home of Mary Angell on May 11.

Esther Dietz entertained them sometime between sunset and sunrise on May 13.

They paid two dollars and two cents for the wrapping paper at the Red Cross Auction held at the Normal May 14.

Miss Stella Rogers was elected as supervisor of music and penmanship in the public schools of Cameron, Missouri. Miss Rogers is a former Normal student.
